CONCERT BY MUSIC CLUB IS CHARMING

There was the usual large audience at the concert of the Music club last night in the assembly room at the Commercial club. It was the closing concert of the season, and an especially fine program was prepared. Part I was based upon Shakespeare, the first number being a piano duet, "Mid-summer Night's Dream," by Mrs. Veatch and Miss Flanagan. A double mixed quartet sang "Hark, Hark, the Lark," and Mrs. Dyer appeared in a reading. Solos, "Who Is Sylvia?" and "The Sweet 'o the Year," were sung by Mrs. Walker.

Part II of the program included first the solos, "Dawn" and "I Think," by Mrs. Ireland. Prof. MacMurray sang "Twilight" and "The Lotus Flower." John Kendrick Bangs' "The Great Composer," was the subject of a reading by Mrs. Laura Gunnell, and Miss Genevieve Pattillo sang "The Nightingale Has a Lyre of Gold" and "Mellandise in the Woods." The final number was a piano solo by Miss Berenice Quinlan, "Waltze in E."

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES

the offer of Earl L. Dyers, of Iditarod, Alaska, to carry mails by aeroplane semi-weekly between Seward and Iditarod for $49,500 a year. The post office department today cabled Dyers to make the necessary bond arrangements, so that if his offer is accepted he may begin the aerial mail carrying at the earliest moment.

It was found the government could save $35,000 annually if Dyers' offer is accepted and certain consequent changes in mail routing are made. Such an arrangement, it was said, would also result in reducing by twenty days the time in winter between Seattle and Nome.
